BAND CONCERT AT KEYSER HALL A BIG SUCCESS

SMALL CROWD GATHERED AND HEARD SOME OF THE BEST MUSIC EVER RENDERED IN PENSACOLA.

By Gillfillan Scott.

The finest band ever organized in Pensacola; the nearest approach to the Crestone band heard here in years.

So much may be said as the result of the performance given by the Pensacola Concert Band last evening at the Keyser hall. The one regrettable feature was the smallness of the audience, which, however, made up in enthusiasm and applause what it lacked in numbers.

The failure on the part of the public to attend is of course no indication of the worthlessness of the band, not at all; it is an indication of the inadequacy of previous bands, and illustration of the proverb "once bit, twice shy."

Let the Pensacola Concert Band have patience, and continue courageously the splendid work it has taken in hand; and, sure enough, the public will flock to hear it.

With absolute confidence in what the future has in store for it, let it go on adding to its repertoire; and let it be an ambitious repertoire; the material is there, the conductor is there, and the public is not far off; a public which loves good music and plenty of it, and a public which will pay for it generously once it catches on to the fact that it is the real article it is paying for and getting. There is plenty of money in Pensacola; money for everyone who is qualified to earn it; but it is not being given away, and those who would earn it must be able and willing to deliver the goods, and it is right here where the Pensacola Concert Band is bound to succeed, always provided it has patience and good business management.

Perhaps the most important matter from the business point of view is the finding of an ideal location, where the public can congregate in their thousands every evening throughout the long, delightful summer, and enjoy the music and other attractions in a free and easy manner, amidst congenial surroundings in the open air.

It is not the purpose of this article to indicate any particular spot which will fulfill the necessary conditions, but only to accentuate the necessity for such a spot. It should be easy of access, and on the waterfront, where the cool breezes from the gulf can reach it. It should be equipped with a large band stand to accommodate forty performers, and have seating arrangements and facilities for refreshments for two or three thousand persons.

The much discussed pleasure pier would be the very thing, and it is great temptation to say where it ought to be; but, "huff sed," Pensacola needs a playground, and needs it badly; a private corporation with the courage to tackle the job would pay handsome dividends, and—Pensacola Concert Band would earn them.

The band last evening numbered thirty pieces, consisting of wood, wind, brass and drums, and was under the conductors of Bandmaster J. S.
Johnson, who exhibited all the attributes of a first-class conductor.

The program, which was rendered in a truly magnificent manner, was as follows:

Part I.
Overture—"Orpheus," Offenbach.
Celebrated Minuet, Paderewski.
Clarinet solo, Griswold—J. S. Martin.

"Stars and Stripes Forever," Sousa.
Part II.

"Poet and Peasant," Suppe.
Medley, "Indian Maiden," Fulton.
"Anvil Chorus" from "Il Trovatore," Verdi.

Characteristic, "Mutting Fritz," Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever" took the audience by storm and was re-demanded—indeed, every number was played with such verve and precision that the delighted audience would fain have encored them all.

It is sincerely to be hoped that some of the leading spirits of the musical circle in Pensacola will investigate and interest themselves in this fine band, and see to it that the public have constant opportunities to listen to the first rate programs it is in a position to offer, with advantage to the Pensacola people as well as to the members of the band.

his orders were immediately obeyed and the ladies laughingly waved one another good-bye.

The order to keep the walks clear was issued several days ago.

AN ALLEGED BAD CHECK ARTIST MAKES ESCAPE

A. L. THORNTON, JR., OF GULFPORT SLIPPED AWAY FROM MARSHAL M'CURDY AT FLOMATON YES-TERDAY AND HAS NOT BEEN REARRESTED.

According to information received yesterday by Sheriff Cary Ellis, A. L.
Thornton, Jr., of Gulfport, Miss., who is wanted in Pensacola on the charge of passing an alleged worthless check for $5, escaped from Marshal McCurdy at Flomaton yesterday shortly after he had been taken into custody for the purpose of bringing him to this city.

Thornton was arrested at Flomaton yesterday morning, but on his request was allowed to go to Century in the custody of an officer for the purpose of making bond. Thornton returned to Flomaton with the officer, but when the latter allowed him his liberty for a few moments Thornton made his escape and has not been since seen.

The alleged worthless check was cashed by Dr. Herbert Bryans of this city.

Thornton is about 22 years old and his parents reside at Gulfport. They are said to be very wealthy.

GREEKS ARE CONDUCTING A CELEBRATION

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD LAST NIGHT AT TEMPLE IN COMMEMORATING THE DEATH OF CHRIST—EASTER WILL BE CELEBRATED TODAY.

Last night, beginning at 10:30 o'clock and concluding at 1 o'clock this morning the celebration of the death of Christ was held at the Greek Orthodox church with impressive services.
The little church at the corner of Wright and Reus streets was elaborately decorated with spring's fairest flowers. The chancel was almost a solid mass of roses, and under the glow of a myriad of incandescent lights presented a scene of unusual brilliancy and beauty.

In the center of the little edifice was a catafalque constructed of flowers and draped with ribbons of many colors. Every part of the church was decorated with either flowers or drapery. In front of the church the Greek flag was at half mast.

At the beginning of the services, which were designated Good Friday, the priest, Joskeim Georges, read an eulogy on the birth and death of Christ at the conclusion of which the floral catafalque was borne through the church several times by the pall-bearers.

Tonight, beginning at 11 o'clock Easter services will be held, and will conclude at 2 o'clock Sunday morning.
Services will also be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

In commemoration of the event the Greek merchants of Pensacola will close their places of business at noon today in order that every one of that nationality may properly observe the occasion.

A custom not generally known is observed by the Greeks. There are no pews, or seats provided for the congregation, and the ladies are not permitted to enter the auditorium proper, but must confine themselves to the balcony of the church.

The services last night were very impressive and were largely attended.

THE WHOLESALE HOUSES CLOSE

PRACTICALLY ALL OF THEM DE-CIDE TO CLOSE AT NOON SAT-URDAY DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS.

Employees of wholesale grocery houses, with very few exceptions, will be given a half holiday during the summer months. Instead of Friday, however, the wholesalers have selected Saturday as the best day to close.

Practically all of the strictly wholesale houses have agreed to close at noon each Saturday for the summer months. This holiday will commence today.

BOYS LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED

ANOTHER BASEBALL ORGANI-ZATION IS LAUNCHED IN PENSA-COLA—IS FOR BOYS UNDER AGE OF 16 YEARS.

With Pensacola holding down a place in the Cotton States league and the Twilight league as an outlet for amateur enthusiasm the next thing had to be a boys' baseball league.

Last night this was definitely decided on by a strong committee, of

E. MILLER FINED BY RECORDER WELSH

In the recorder's court yesterday morning Eugene Miller, seventeen years old, driver of an automobile, was fined $3 by Recorder Welsh on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Miller was arrested at 1 o'clock yesterday morning by Officer Simpson on complaint of John McCarthy, a fourteen-year-old white boy, employed in Miller & Sugg's garage on East Garden street as a night watchman, who charged Miller with pouring oil of mu-lard on him while he was sleeping in the garage.
